We have tried forty other remedies before Simmons' Liver Regulator, but none temporary relief; but the Regulator not only relieved but cured us.—[Editor Telegraph and Messenger, Ma-

TOLIC AND GRURRS IN HORSES Having had during the last twenty years of my life to attend to Racing Stock, and having had so much trouble with them with Colie, Grubbs, &c., gave me a great deal of trouble. Having heard of your Regulator as a cure tor the above diseases, I concluded to try it. After trying one PACKAGE IN MASH I found it to cure in every instance. It is only to be tried to prove what I have said in its praise. I can send you certificates from Augusta, Clinton and Macon as to the cure of horse. GEORGE WAYMAN Macon, Ga., July 24th, 1875.

Woman's Rights.

The following has become a law :-Be it enacted by the General Assembly, That the real and personal property of any female who may hereafter marry, and which she shall own at the time of her marriage, and the rents, issues, and profits thereof, and and any property, real or personal, acquired by a married woman, as a separate and sole trader, shall not be subject to the disposal of her husband, nor be liable for his debts, and shall be and continue her separate and sole property; and any such married woman shall have power to contract in relation thereto, or for the disposal thereof, and may sue and be sued as if she were a feme sole; provided that her husband shall join in any contract in reference to her real or personal property other than such as she may acquire as a sole trader, and shall be joined with her in any action by or against her; and provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall deprive her of the power to create, without the concurrence of her husband, a charge upon such sale and separate estate as she would be empowered to charge without the concurrence of her husband, if this act had not been passed. 2. All real and personal estate hereafter acquired by any married woman, whether by gift, grant, purchase, inheritance, devise or bequest, shall be and continue her sole and separate estate, subject to the' provisions and limitations of the preceding section, although the mar-riage may have been solemnized previous to the passage of this act; and she may devise and bequeath the same as if she were unmarried, and it shall not be liable to the debts or liabili-ties of her husband; provided, that nothing contained in this act shall be construed to deprive the husband of courtesy in his wife's real estate, to which he may be entitled by the laws now in force; and provided further, that the sole and separate estate created by any gift, grant, devise or bequests, shall be held accord ing to the terms and powers, and be subject to the provisions and limitations thereof, and to the provisions and limitations of this act so far as they are not in conflict therewith. 3. Any married woman may in her own name, or by her next friend, tile a bill in equity in any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter, in the event of her husband's refusing or being incompetent to unite in the conveyance or disposal of her separate estate; and if the court shall be of the opinion that the interest of the married woman will be promoted by a sale thereof, may make such decree as may be necessary to convey absolute title thereto. 4. This act shall be in force from its passage.

LAW AND TRAGEDY. - In the Corporation Court yesterday Mike Thomas, a notorious negro scoundrel, was found guilty of petit larcony, second offence, and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. Mike might have been as easily convicted of almost any other crime, for it has been always understood that no indictment could be framed in any court which wouldn't exactly fit his case. When the solemn jury rendered their solemn verdict of guilty, Mr. Thomas solemnly arose and swore he intended to commit hari kari; whereupon he drew an enormous knife and proceeded to cut his throat. But the skin was too tough or the knife too dull, we don't know which, and thus ye reporter was swindled out of what ought to have been a first-class item.

Mike is now in jail, and will in a few days go to Richmond, as a representative from this city. His pretended attempt at suicide was a ridiculous fraud, for he knew the knife wouldn't cut before he used it .- Lynch. News. GWENDOLYN'S ORIGINAL.-I have recently been told a curious fact in regard to George Eliot's last novel, "Daniel Derouda." It is this: The heroine, Gwendolyn, is a lady living in London, who some years ago was possessed of nearly a million of dollars. She went to the Continent and became "an infatuated gamb-ler," losing nearly all her money, and parting with her necklace, as the book states. During her infatuation she was narrowly watched by George Eliot, and also by a wealthy gentleman living to day in Manchester. So interested did he become in "Gwendelye," that, as the book stated, he offered to make good her losses if she would cease play, but was refused. I have said, the lady now lives in London on an in-

of one of England's greatest poets. - Cleveland Leader.

come of about a thousand dollars a year, all that is saved from the wreek. She is twenty-five years of age, unmarried, and is said to be very handsome, and what adds interest to the tale, is the fact that she is the granddaughter
